

Action Steps for You to Take in 2018 Elections — it matters!

Please make informative connections NOW with candidates about Florida's arts & culture industry.

Your Time on the 2018 Election Stage to Make An IMPACT on the

PRIMARY Elections is Now through August 28 and on GENERAL Elections is Now through November 6

√ When You Do It:	Suggested actions you can do during the 2018 elections that will make a difference to help establish future funding and policies that matter to Florida's arts, arts education, and culture industry.	Resources for You to Use During the 2018 Elections:
	1. Make sure you're registered to vote .	Update or Register here .
	2. Put the election dates on your calendar and make sure you vote :	Information for voters .
	3. Invest some time to learn about the candidates who are running for STATEWIDE OFFICE . Focus FIRST on those candidates on the Primary Ballot and then on the General Election Ballot: explore their Websites, see how much they have raised in campaign contributions, get access to their Twitter handles, Facebook, addresses, etc. Connect with them — all contact information is here .	Quick Look at Status Excel Files Linked Here — includes comprehensive information on each candidate.
	4. Know YOUR DISTRICT #s for those candidates who are already elected or who are still in their respective races for the U.S. House , Florida Senate , and Florida House .	Your districts here . Districts for your county.
	5. Invest some time to learn about YOUR DISTRICT candidates who will represent you in the U.S. House, Florida Senate, and Florida House. Focus FIRST on those candidates on the Primary Ballot and then, on General Election Ballot.	Excel Files Linked Here — includes comprehensive Information on ALL candidates.
	6. Share the appropriate Platform for Arts & Culture with candidates , along with a personal note about why state funding and policies that support Florida's arts, arts education, and culture industry matter: write, email, complete Web contact form, Tweet, etc. Contact information is linked in Excel files above.	1. Gubernatorial Platform 2. Legislative Platform 3. Congressional Survey Access to all Platforms
	7. Cast other advocates using this document to play minor OR major roles.	2018 Vote Florida
	8. Access greater details in complete 2018 Vote Florida Arts Guidebook.	Arts Guidebook